TIPS

To obtain the best results, youneed to choose the right make-up.

A. situation you are making up for. B. texture of your makeup product. C. shape of your face.

A. Situation

1. For a quick make-up fix, the simplest way is to put on lipstick, mascara and eye-shadow.

i. Apply a matching lipstick to your outfit.

- ii. Apply your mascara twice.
- iii. Optionally, add a thin line of eye-shadow on the lid and under the lower lashes.

- i. Apply lip liner first and then your matching lipstick.
- ii. Choose your blush matching your lipstick (peach, tanned..) and apply to your cheeks.
- iii. Use two colour-coordinated eye-shadows in light and dark shades.
- iv. Use your mascara and eyeliner. (Your eyeliner and mascara can be different colours.)

- 3. For sophisticated evening makeup, apply concealer, foundation, powder, blush, eveliner, mascara, eve-shadow, lip liner, lipstick, lip gloss.
- i. Apply concealer under eyes and on spots and blemishes, then base foundation all over your face and after a while apply the powder.
- ii. For eye shadow, put contour colour along the lashes and in the crease. Add more colour to the outside corner of your eyes, connecting together the lines along the lashes and in the crease. Use highlight colour in the area under the brow and in the inside corner of your eye.
- iii. For a smoky look use dark eyeliner, mascara, and shading, and light colours for a summer look
- iv. Put foundation on your lips and then apply lip-liner and lipstick.
- v. For a long-lasting make-up, spray fixator.

B. Texture

High-quality make-up is heavily pigmented, which means that the colour reveals itself with the first stroke and will not fade.

Liquid or creamy eye-shadow should have a lightweight texture that is easy to apply and blend. It must dry quickly to be long-lasting. Readily. Waterproof liquid lasts the longest.

Fluid texture is best for single colour application. This type of make-up blends well.

For foolproof (aptalca gorunus) application of a creamy look, apply with your fingertip. Blend it with a sponge applicator, or with a small synthetic brush.

C. Shape Choose your brushes and applicators according to the size of your face parts; the larger the area you have to work on, the bigger your brushes will need to be. A. To make small parts of the face look bigger, B. For protruding parts of the face, matte is preferable apply liners outside borders for eyes and lips. to iridescent as a baseand contouring colour. Don't outline the contour with a dark colour. D. For Asian face, don't attempt to draw a line above C. Mature face look best with a light make-up. your natural lines with a dark colour. Instead, try to create the illusion by applying bright shimmery colours. Large face look beautiful as they are; smaller ones need some work. Activity 4 Watch the two videos, and write the: A.applications types B.instructions the beautician uses. Video 1. Video 2. REQUESTS Use 'could' to be more polite to make requests. Could I have the peach blush? Can you pass me the shimmering eye shadow please? Activity 8 Write the best make-up style for each face below. (round and triangle pictures from the previous unit)
